

Holiday Cause & Effect Prove It To Me

No Prep- Printed Version

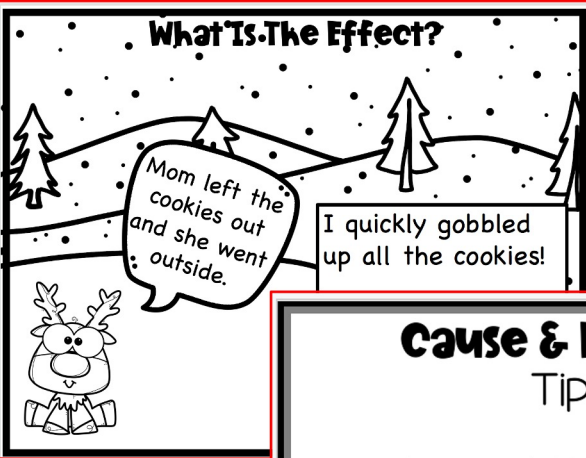

- Engaging activities
- Short texts
- Provide evidence from the text
- Teaching pages for notebooks
- Guided practice slides
- Independent work slides

Holiday Cause & Effect Prove It To Me

No Prep- Printed Version

HOLIDAY CAUSE & EFFECT

What Is The Effect?

NO PREP. →
PRINT & GO

Cause & Effect Tip

The cause always happens first, but is not always written first.

Santa overslept and as a result was late to deliver presents.

Santa was late delivering presents because he overslept.

Conversations IN LITERACY

Teaching & Guided
Practice Pages

HOLIDAY CAUSE & EFFECT

NO PREP. →
PRINT & GO

Cut apart the sentence strips. Match the all the causes to the correct effects and glue to the Cause & Effect Sort sheet.

CAUSE	EFFECT
Santa's stomach was hungry and grumbled.	Santa couldn't sleep.
The Christmas tree was bare.	Santa was sad.
The elves stuffed the sack with too many toys.	The reindeer couldn't pull the sleigh.
The boy pulled the ornament off the tree.	The tree fell over.

Cut apart the pictures. Match the cause to the effect.

CAUSE	EFFECT
We ate all the cookies.	The cookies were gone.
It snowed during the night.	The ground was covered in snow.
I was so cold from playing outside.	I wore a heavy coat.

Story Comprehension It's Your Turn!

My Story

Questions

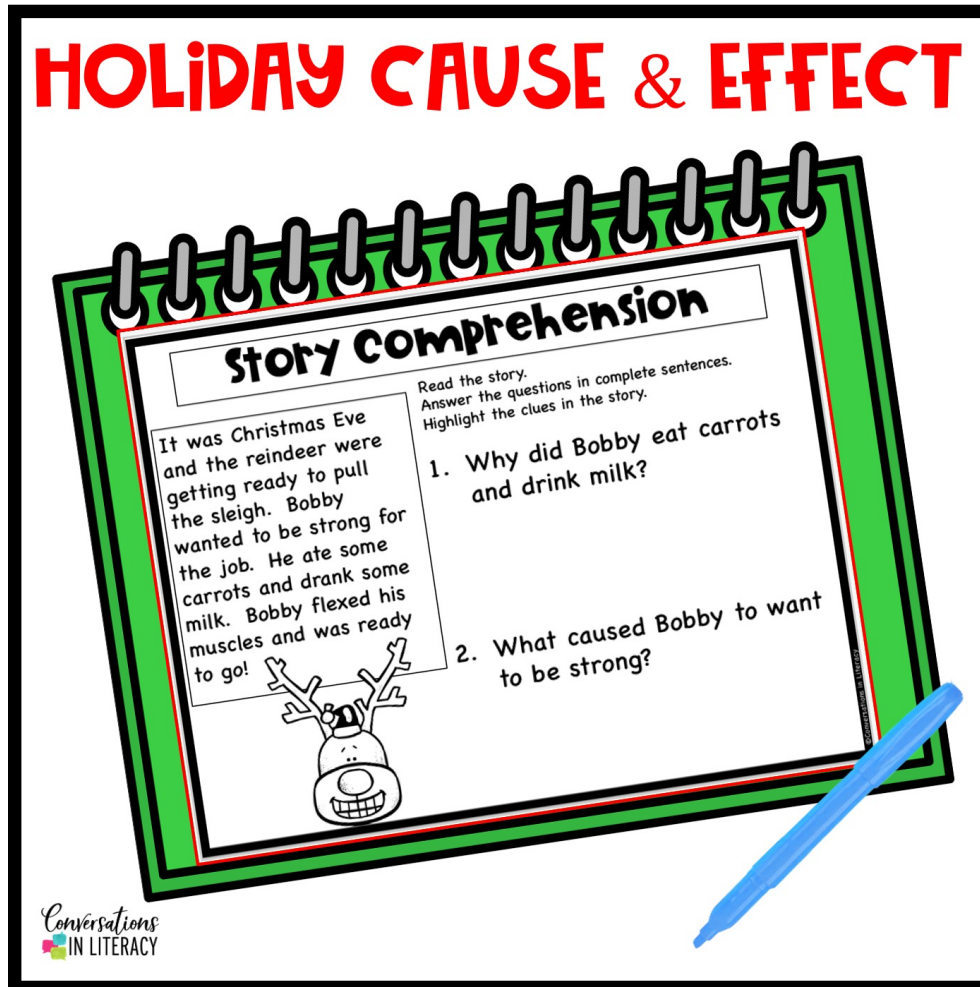

Conversations IN LITERACY

Independent Practice
& Enrichment Pages

Holiday Cause & Effect Prove It To Me

No Prep- Printed Version

- No Prep-Print & Use
- Independent Practice
- Short Texts
- Provide Evidence From the Text

Perfect For:
Guided Reading
Morning Work
Literacy Centers
Reading Interventions